Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 17.-Repub licans, who were opposed to M. W. Hooper, in the state convention, today nication from Governor Fort, of New expressed the fear that his nomination as candidate for governor insures the re-election of Governor Malcolm R. Patterson. Hooper is only 35 years old, and practically unknown in many quarters of the state. His experience in politics was gained in the legislature. The nomination of Hooper is considered a victory for the Evans-Sanders faction of the republican party and a defeat for the Brownlow-Austin wing. President Taft was known to favor either Judge Henderson or Robert

S. Sharp, chief postoffice inspector. The Browlowites would not have Sharp and the Evans-Sanders faction would not consider Henderson.
